This house was designed for socializing! With no wasted space, your family and guests easily move from the kitchen/dining/great room to a wonderful outdoor, covered porch . . . or into a flex room/den for a quiet conversation.

Since all the bedrooms are upstairs, socializing on the main floor won't disturb family members who wish to relax or need to sleep. Because the washer and dryer are close to the secondary bedrooms, the kids won't have an excuse not to do their laundry.
